

KCM Post-Conference Day—February 27, 2013, 8:30 to 3:30 ET

Building Foundations for Fluent Multiplication and Division

What to Expect:

- Teacher updates for Add+Vantage MR2
- KCM Community release of the FM100 (Fluency Assessment for Multiplication and Division to 100)
- Strategies for the teaching and learning of CCSS situations for multiplication and division
- KNP targeted instructional activities for multiplication and division
- A look at working memory and how to best develop fluency versus automaticity
- Leadership support for working with colleagues to improve the teaching and learning of multiplication and division

Why Attend?:

- Free for full KCM Community members & KCM leaders ($75 for all others)
- Opportunity to collaborate with other KCM Community members
- Acquire and share strategies and resources for working with students and teachers
- Refine your understanding of intermediate grades standards
- Grow your knowledge of multiplication and division progressions

Target Audience: Teachers of students who need work on multiplication and division

Location: Salon C, Lexington Hilton/Downtown, 369 West Vine Street

Time: February 27, 2013 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. ET

Cost: Free for full KCM Community members & KCM leaders; $75 for all others

Bring: A sweater or jacket; A laptop or tablet

Contact: Alice Gabbard, Kentucky Center for Mathematics (gabbardal@nku.edu)

Register: <http://kymath.org/>; Growth Opportunities: Event Registration